Robert James Slimmon was born on 25 Jul 1866. He married Hellin Rebecca “Nellie” Kelley (b. April 6, 1869 - daughter of Samuel Kelley and Amy Card) on 20 Jun 1892. At the time of his marriage, Robert’s occupation was recorded as a “Farmer” living in Drayton, Peel Twp. Apparently he carried on his father’s occupation from a very young age since, even at the time of the 1881 census—when he was only 14—he was listed as a “Farmer”. However, by 1901, he had switched to being a “Carpenter”. Also, in that census, his last name was spelled “Slemmon”. In 1911 he was recorded as a “Carpenter” “working on own account” but he also had a secondary occupation of “Assessor” living in the village of Drayton. Robert died on 19 Jul 1940 in Toronto, ON at age 73.

Although Hellin Rebecca Kelley had been born in Ontario, her parents—not surprisingly—were from Ireland. Nellie died in Toronto on 22 October, 1949 at age 80.
